EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments discussed during the interview dated 12/20/05 have been fully considered and found persuasive. (See attached Interview Summary.)

In particular, Applicant primarily argues that the cited prior art of record (Kusunose) does not teach a plurality of concurrently scanning spot beams that scan the object along a first common line. Rather, Kusunose teaches a plurality of beams arranged in a first axis (i.e. linear arrangement) scanning across the object each in its own respective path. Thus, although the scanning beams are moving in the same direction, they are not along a same line or axis.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Alan Kasper on 12/20/05.

The application has been amended as follows:

Claim 15, line 4: change "first common axis" to -- second common axis -- .

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 11-17 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

Regarding claims 11-14, the cited prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a linear light detector apparatus comprising, along with the other claimed features, a plurality of concurrently scanning spot beams that scan the object along a first common axis.

Regarding claims 15-17, the cited prior art of record does not teach or fairly suggest a method for detecting signals comprising, along with the other claimed features, receiving an input from a respective one of a plurality of concurrently scanning beams that scan an object along a first common axis.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
